The Gorham Mfg Co., Silversmiths, in reply to misleading statements recently published, announce to its patrons and to the public generally that for sixty years its productions in Solid Silver have been most favorably known and its reputation, not alone for purity of metal, but for marked originality and consistency of design, insured by the constant employment of the ablest artists and artisans procurable, several of whom have received recognition from the Jury of Awards of the Paris Exposition.

The large and constantly-growing business of the Company arises from the merits of its productions and its purpose to give the widest possible range in variety of wares desirable in Solid Silver.

Its corps of employees far outnumbers any similar establishment in this country or in the world, and will, upon the completion of its plant now in process of erection, be materially increased and possessed of every possible facility.

REMOVAL BULLETIN, NOV. 25, '89, REMOVAL! REMOVAL! REMOVAL!

If unparalleled bargains will dispose of our stocks they will be totally annihilated in a few weeks more. During last week we placed on our counters a line of Suits and Overcoats that certainly "caught on." Every one who saw them was eloquent in their praise of the great value of the clothing exhibited.

To-day we display an unusually attractive line of fine Overcoats, made of Kerseys, Meltons, and Chinchillas, that cannot be bought elsewhere for twice the amount asked.

No one can afford to miss this Great Opportunity. Nothing like it will occur again soon. We had all our stocks in when we decided to move. You can buy these regular stocks for almost a song.
